A magazine publishing company is about to launch a new print and online magazine, called Parent's PC about the unique needs of Seniors and Older Adults who are new to the world of computers. The target audience of the magazine is both Seniors and Older Adults, as well as Their Children.

Create a collage about how YOU want this new website to approach you. Pick at least 4 symbolic pictures from the collection, and write your own words about what qualities the new website SHOULD HAVE.

Remember, the pictures are symbolic, they represent qualities the website should have -- they aren't literal pictures that will appear on the site.

What qualities should the new print and online magazine, called Parent's PC NOT HAVE?

Pick at least 2 symbolic pictures from the collection; write words under each explaining what they represent.
